IEEE HYDERABAD SECTION: BYLAWS

Nothing in these Bylaws is to be construed as to be contrary to the IEEE Bylaws, Constitution, Policy and Procedures. So as to be gender neutral “Chairman or Chairmen” here is to mean any person of any of the known genders and not just a Male person.

ARTICLE I Name and Territory

Sec 1. This organization shall be known as the HYDERABAD SECTION of the Institute of Electrical Engineers Inc., in short “IEEE Hyderabad Section”.

Sec 2. The Territory of the Hyderabad Section, as approved by the Regional Activities Board, includes the following:

THE WHOLE OF ANDHRA PRADESH AND TELANGANA STATE IN INDIA AS PER THE HYDERABAD SECTION FORMATION DOCUMENT RECEIVED BY IEEE MGA, except for the designated areas as given to VIZAG BAY SECTION by IEEE Hyderabad section and recorded by IEEE MGA.

Sec 3. The Section will have its formal office in Hyderabad or Secunderabad from where it shall carry out its management, administration and all such activities that will be necessary for smooth functioning of the Section.

ARTICLE II Objectives

The section shall have for its objectives and purpose the advancement of the theory and practice of the IEEE designated fields and maintenance of high professional standards of its members. These objectives will be realized by holding and organizing frequent technical talks, lectures, discussions, seminars, workshops, conferences and other technical & professional activities aimed at improving members knowledge and competence and their overall professional development. The section will also organize suitable activities to promote understanding and education of the influence of technology, in general amongst the public at large, including the student community.

ARTICLE III - Officers

Sec 1. The elected officers of the Section will be Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer.

Sec 2. The terms of office of the elected officers shall be for 1 year. After having served one term the elected officers shall be eligible to be re-elected for one additional term, unless the elected officer is not willing to continue for the second term. This is in accordance with MGA Operations manual 9.7.b. Vacancies, suspension and removal from office shall be also in accordance with the MGA Operations manual.

Sec 3. Terms of office will begin on January 01, but in any case the outgoing officers will continue until their successors are duly elected and take office. The consecutive period of service in any one office shall normally not exceed four years. All officers shall not serve in any one position, in any single organizational unit, more than six years in total. Exceptions to this rule require approval by the Region Director who will annually report such exceptions to the MGA Board (From MGA Operation manual 2019).

Sec 4. any vacancy occurring during the year shall be filled by a majority vote of the Section Executive Committee.

Sec 5. The duties of the elected offices shall be as described in the IEEE MGA Operation manual.

Sec 6. Role of Sub Unit Officers in Section Executive Committee

There are two types of sub-units that the section considers. The geographic sub-unit is a Sub-Section. The subsections shall pursue their operations as per the MGA Operations Manual relevant sections. An affinity group recognised by IEEE in its MGA operations manual under the section is designated as a sub-unit in the section. The Technical Society Chapters and Technical Council Units are also invited to report their plans and activities to the Section.

a. Sub Section Officers
   The Sub-Section Chairs will be invited to participate in the SEC while it is not mandatory for them to vote, their views and opinion will be sought for matters that concern their geographies.

b. Chapter/ Affinity Group chair

The Technical Society or Technical Council Chapter Chair/Affinity group Chair (herein after “Chair”) is the Chief Operating Officer of the Chapter of Section. The Chair is responsible for ensuring that the Chapter is engaging the members and supplementing their technical knowledge by conducting informative technical meetings and events at the local level. The Chair learns and practices all aspects of leadership. This includes working well with others, displaying honesty, integrity and adherence to high ethical standards. There is a tremendous satisfaction in seeing others in the Chapter grow and gain self-confidence. The Chair can prepare for a possible greater role in IEEE. Most importantly, the experience and organizational skills gained in chapter management stay with the Chair forever beyond IEEE and are easily transferable to professional life as well as other activities.

The primary duties of the Chapter Chair/Affinity Group chair are as follows:
1. Ensure that at least two technical meetings are conducted and reported in a calendar year.
2. Recruit volunteers, provide leadership and guidance to them, mentor your successor, and ensure that Chapter activities are focused on increasing member engagement and satisfaction.
3. Identify the needs of the Technical Society members and provide report and feedback to the Section Executive Committee.
4. Ensure the success of the Chapter as defined by its Technical Society.
5. Ensure that the Chapter is in compliance with IEEE Policies and local regulations.

The ideal candidate is an enthusiastic member who is willing to uphold the Vision and Mission of IEEE to directly benefit the profession for the common good of humanity.
